BESKRIVELSE

Strolling through the city center is to discover a vibrant city, full of small shops, cafes, restaurants, and squares where people gather to enjoy everyday life. This penthouse conveys a sense of freedom that is difficult to describe until you experience it. Located on a higher level, it offers a more tranquil and luminous environment than the surrounding properties. Light floods in, creating a warm atmosphere that transforms the space into a welcoming and vibrant haven. The terrace becomes the heart of the home. In Mediterranean cities like Torrevieja, outdoor spaces take center stage. The terrace allows you to enjoy the fresh air, sunshine, and open sky for much of the year. It's the perfect place to start the day calmly or to unwind at the end of the day as the city slowly illuminates at nightfall. The fact that the property is being sold furnished adds a significant advantage. From day one, it's ready to begin a new chapter without the need for major changes. This feature is especially appealing to those seeking comfort and wanting to settle quickly into their new home. The center of Torrevieja offers great convenience for daily life. Having everything close by allows for a practical and enjoyable routine. Shops, supermarkets, restaurants, and leisure areas are all within easy reach, making daily life easier and allowing you to make the most of your time. The city also stands out for its multicultural atmosphere. Over the years, people from different countries have chosen Torrevieja as their home, creating a diverse and enriching community. This mix of cultures is reflected in the gastronomy, local events, and the overall ambiance of the city. The three bedrooms offer great versatility to the penthouse. This layout allows the space to be adapted to different needs. It could be the ideal home for a family who wants to live in the city center, for a couple looking for spaciousness, or even for those who want extra rooms for guests or personal activities. The presence of two bathrooms adds convenience to the home and facilitates daily living. This layout is especially practical when sharing the space with family or guests, as it allows for greater privacy between different areas of the home. The terrace is once again one of the most attractive features of the penthouse. In Mediterranean climates, these types of spaces become a natural extension of the home. They are the place to share meals outdoors, enjoy relaxed conversations, or simply contemplate the clear skies of the Costa Blanca. Torrevieja also offers a wide variety of cultural and leisure activities. Throughout the year, events, concerts, markets, and festivals fill the streets with life. Living in the city center allows you to be part of this dynamic atmosphere and easily participate in the city's social life.
