Bungalow in Torrevieja with communal pool, parking included, 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, separate kitchen, and patio. A home that embodies everything many people imagine when they dream of having their own corner of the Costa Blanca: sun, tranquility, a homey feel, and a perfect setting to enjoy both everyday life and holidays. Bungalow living: more than an apartment Living in a bungalow in Torrevieja is very different from living in a high-rise apartment. Here, life feels more grounded, more intimate, more like a quiet residential neighborhood where you know your neighbors and enjoy the outdoors almost as much as the indoors. Every time you enter, it doesn't feel like an "apartment building," but rather a cozy home within a gated community where the atmosphere is relaxed and family-friendly.

BUNGALOW IN TORREVIEJA

Ref. MLSC1332755 · 194.900 €

DESCRIPTION

The combination of comfortable living with a communal pool and common areas makes the whole place a little world of its own: a place you arrive at and need nothing more to feel like you can disconnect. Ideal for year-round living or as a second home for regular getaways to the beach and the pleasant climate of Torrevieja. A home that invites you to stay This bungalow conveys from the first moment the typical feeling of "a place you want to be." It's not just a place to stay for short periods, but a home to settle into, bring your belongings, your style, and your pace. The layout allows for comfortable living: a daytime area for spending time together, a nighttime area for truly resting, and outdoor spaces that expand how you use the house. The two bedrooms make it very versatile: perfect for a couple who want a master bedroom and another room for guests, an office, or a child's room; or for a small family looking for something practical and well-designed. The bathroom perfectly complements this type of home, making everyday life comfortable and hassle-free. Separate kitchen: the practical heart of the home The separate kitchen is one of the bungalow's greatest attractions. Having it separate from the living room allows you to cook without filling the entire house with smells and enjoy your own space for everyday life: preparing leisurely breakfasts, family meals, dinners with friends, or even organizing small special moments around the table. It's that kind of "traditional" kitchen, where you truly live: you talk, you cook, you plan the day, you get things ready for the pool or the beach. For those who value functionality and practicality, a well-designed, separate kitchen makes all the difference compared to other, more impersonal properties. The charm of the patio The patio is one of those spaces that ends up becoming the silent heart of the home. It's the place to have your first coffee of the morning in the fresh air, to enjoy lunches or dinners outdoors, where children can play safely, or where you can simply lie down and read for a while with the ambient sounds of the neighborhood in the background. It's also perfect for those with pets, plants, or who simply like having a small outdoor corner to decorate to their liking: lights, pots, a table, some chairs... With just a few touches, it transforms into a space with plenty of personality. In a city like Torrevieja, where the weather is good for much of the year, having a patio makes the bungalow a home that's enjoyed both indoors and out. Communal pool: summer all year round The communal pool is another major highlight. Having it just steps from home means that every sunny day can become a "mini vacation": go down for a swim, lie in the sun, let the children enjoy the water without having to drive or look for a spot on the beach. It's pure convenience. Furthermore, the pool serves as a natural meeting point for neighbors, creating a very pleasant social atmosphere.
