DESCRIPTION

This is a large country house located approximately 2 km from the town of Monovar which offers all your day-to-day facilities. the property itself is located in a small hamlet with only a few houses. The main house is in reasonably good order throughout and is currently used by the owners as a weekend home and summer retreat. Adjoining the property is a further property which is currently used for storage, however this could be converted into a self-contained house or annex. The area is very quiet, rural and yet only a stones throw from the nearest town. There were great views over the town of Monovar and the city of Elda. There is a shared area to the front of the property which is ideal for parking.
