DESCRIPTION

Some homes surprise you the moment you step inside. This is one of them.In Santiago de la Ribera, just 80 meters from the sea, you'll find this charming Spanish corner property dating back to 1965. Behind its understated façade lies a surprisingly modern interior, where original features and contemporary comfort come together beautifully.The property was completely renovated in 2022, with great care taken to preserve its original character. The authentic wooden roof structure and original roof tiles were retained, while a new tiled roof was installed above them. The upper level was also renovated and incorporated into the home's distinctive design.The result is impressive.
