Solar panels have also been installed for the entire community, helping to reduce energy costs. The property is currently rented until September 2027. The existing rental agreement will remain in place after the sale, and the new owner will take over the rental income, making this an attractive option for buyers looking for an investment property with income already in place. Located close to Villamartín Plaza, La Zenia Boulevard and several renowned golf courses, this property combines an excellent location with modern facilities and strong investment potential on the Costa Blanca.
