There's also a handy storage room and parking, and the house is located within a gated community with nighttime security. It features a fantastic communal swimming pool within the complex. Imagine going from breakfast on your terrace to a refreshing swim in just a few minutes. The house is also cheerful, colorful, and very welcoming. It has an open-plan kitchen and a comfortable, functional layout. It's in good condition and, best of all, it's being sold furnished and exactly as you see it: ready to move in and enjoy. The Lagunas de La Mata Natural Park is practically next door! Just 100 meters away is an entrance to the trail, so going for a walk, exercising, or simply disconnecting surrounded by nature can become part of your daily routine. In addition, you have bars, restaurants, and bus stops nearby; the salt lagoons are approximately 4 km away on foot, the leisure area is about 5 km away, and the beaches of Torrevieja are about 9 km away. Alicante Airport is approximately 50 km away. And there's another very interesting detail for investors: tourist licenses are permitted in the complex, always subject to the corresponding regulations and requirements. A perfect house for those looking for a second home, a holiday home, or a property with tourist rental potential. But above all, a house to enjoy. Because when you step inside, you don't just see square footage… you feel that sense of home, tranquility, and Mediterranean living. Terrace, pool, nature, restaurants, beach, and a friendly, international atmosphere… what more could you ask for? Come visit and discover for yourself everything this house has to offer. You might just have found your own little corner of the Costa Blanca!
