One of its standout features is the wonderful dual-terrace layout, designed to enjoy sunshine throughout the entire day. The terrace by the main entrance catches the warm morning sun — the perfect spot for your morning coffee — while the second terrace enjoys the afternoon sun through to the late evening.For year-round comfort, the property is equipped with two top-tier air conditioning systems, keeping you cool during the sizzling summer months and comfortable during the winter evenings.Residents also have access to a cozy communal outdoor area with two swimming pools. Although there is no designated parking space, free public parking is easily available directly in front of the property, with spaces always available.Prime La Mata LocationLa Mata is widely regarded as one of the region's most desirable and beautiful beach areas, famous for its wide sandy beaches and crystal-clear Mediterranean waters.Everything you need is close by, with shops, supermarkets and charming seaside restaurants all within easy walking distance. The vibrant centre of Torrevieja is also easily accessible thanks to regular and reliable public bus transport nearby.This fully renovated, move-in-ready apartment offers a rare combination of stylish coastal living, sunshine-filled outdoor space and excellent investment potential — all in one of the Costa Blanca's prime locations. Contact us today to arrange a viewing or request a virtual tour. Your Mediterranean paradise is waiting!
