The grounds can be landscaped and arranged to suit your individual needs and tastes, whether you envision a garden filled with Mediterranean plants, a cosy seating area beneath a pergola or a space for outdoor dining. There is plenty of scope to add your personal touch and create your own little paradise under the Spanish sun.The terraces offer beautiful views over Rojales and the natural lagoons. The open outlook and surrounding scenery provide a delightful setting for everyday relaxation, conversations over coffee and peaceful evenings.The generous size and layout of the house offer the possibility of using it as two independent rental apartments or letting the entire villa to larger groups. This makes the property equally appealing as a spacious year-round home, a holiday retreat for family and friends or a rental investment.Rojales and nearby Ciudad Quesada combine traditional Spanish charm with everyday convenience. Shops, restaurants and cafés can be found in the surrounding area, while nearby golf courses offer opportunities for active leisure. The beautiful sandy beaches of Guardamar del Segura are approximately a 10-minute drive away, making it easy to combine peaceful days at your villa with time by the sea.A home with room to bring your ideas to life — and to create your ideal setting for living, relaxing and spending time together on the Costa Blanca.
