LÝSING

The balcony is perfect for having breakfast outdoors, drinking a coffee, or enjoying the excellent Mediterranean climate of Torrevieja.

The apartment is furnished, well-maintained, and ready to move into, making it an excellent option both as a primary residence and for enjoying a second home on the Costa Blanca.

The building has a video surveillance system with security cameras in the common areas, providing greater control and peace of mind for residents.

One of its main attractions is its location. The well-known Parque de las Naciones is about 300 meters away, while the port of Torrevieja is approximately 1.1 km away. Playa del Acequión is also about 1.1 km away, approximately a 15-minute walk.

In addition, there is a Consum supermarket practically next to the property, as well as shops, cafes, restaurants, and various services in the surrounding area, allowing you to enjoy daily life without the need to use a car.

Due to its location, layout, and condition, this property is a very interesting option for those looking to buy an apartment in Torrevieja near the beach, whether to live in all year round, enjoy vacations, or as an investment.

A comfortable and cozy home, with east orientation, building with video surveillance, beach, port, center of Torrevieja, green areas, and all services within walking distance.
