

#60004 / Pilar de la Horadada / Alicante / Spain

Description

We are pleased to present the first phase of the Pura Vida IV project, located in Pilar de la Horadada, just a few meters from the city center.

This project offers spacious apartments with huge terraces and solariums. Its new and charming design with intelligent solutions will make you fall in love with it. The luxury project consists of twelve apartments to be built in two phases. The delivery of the first phase is scheduled for September 2025.

The six first floor apartments will have spacious east/west facing terraces with private swimming pool. They will have three bedrooms, two bathrooms, laundry room and spacious room layouts.

The six top floor apartments will also have three bedrooms, two bathrooms, laundry room and spacious rooms, as well as a solarium of between 108 and 113 square meters. The solarium will have a private infinity pool, summer kitchen, pergola, toilet and all included in the price.

All apartments are finished to a high standard with Bosch or Siemens appliances, electric blinds for all windows, fully installed air conditioning, fully equipped bathrooms and large swimming pools, etc. You will fall in love!

This complex is located near the center of Pilar de la Horadada, close to 'La Rambla' and within walking distance to all amenities such as stores, pharmacies, supermarkets, bars and restaurants. In 'La Rambla' there is a beautiful walking and cycling path that takes you to the beach in only 30 minutes. Alicante airport is 77 km away and Murcia airport is only 43 km away.
