Designer homes for sale in a high-demand area, Moncofa

Description

Designer homes for sale in a high-demand area, located in a strategic position between Valencia and CastellÃ³n, close to the Mediterranean coast. This privileged setting allows you to enjoy seaside living, local gastronomy and culture, while offering excellent road access and public transport connections. It is the perfect choice for both permanent residence and a secure property investment.

The development consists of 8 modern homes designed with functionality and comfort in mind. Each unit offers cross ventilation, optimal natural lighting and the possibility of a private rooftop terrace. Interior spaces are well planned, built with high-quality materials, and include access to a private terrace, ensuring comfort and practicality in one of the most sought-after areas of MoncÃ³far.

A bespoke furnishing service is also available, with design projects created by top-level interior designers, allowing each buyer to adapt the property to their lifestyle from day one. Prices and availability are provided upon request.

Each residence has been carefully appraised according to its size, interior layout and type of terrace, maintaining consistency across the development. Taxes are not included. Sales conditions available on request. Please note that images, figures and floor plans are for illustrative purposes only and may be subject to modification.

This new residential offer combines excellent location, modern design and functional living, making it a solid option for those seeking a home or an investment opportunity on the Mediterranean coast.