DESCRIÇÃO

From here, you have access to a large terrace with relaxing views, the perfect place to enjoy your morning coffee or unwind in the evening.One of the property's biggest highlights is the impressive 66 m^2 underbuild. This versatile additional space is currently divided into a room that could be used as a bedroom or home office, together with a large open area offering plenty of possibilities. With the right adaptation, it could potentially be transformed into a separate guest apartment, entertainment area, home gym or additional living space.Outside, the property benefits from a private surrounding patio and a private parking space, adding further convenience to this already versatile home.The property is sold fully furnished and is ready to move into. A fantastic opportunity for anyone looking for a spacious family home, holiday property or investment in San Miguel de Salinas, with the added benefit of a substantial underbuild offering excellent potential for future use.
